

FIDNES 2019 Curaçao Conference

FINANCE IN THE DYNAMIC NETWORK SOCIETY &
SMALL ISLAND DEVELOPING STATES (SIDS)

November 7, 8 and 9, 2019

AT THE UNIVERSITY OF CURAÇAO, WILLEMSTAD, CURAÇAO

The Conference is a podium to identify and discuss new challenges faced by financial institutions in the new networking era. Both practitioners and academics are invited to participate.

Topics of interest include, but are not limited to:

Pension Funds and Life Insurance
Entrepreneurship and Innovation in the Dynamic Network Society
Family Business
Poverty & Inclusion/Micro-Ventures & Micro-Finance
Banking and Financial Innovation

Special Remote address by Fekitamoeloa Katoa 'Utoikamanu
United Nations
High Representative for SIDS

Speakers:

Markus Veith
Partner and Financial
Practices Leader, NorthEast,
Grant Thornton, New York

Evelyn Kruithof-Bor
CEO
APC Pension Fund
Curaçao

Sudhir Rajkumar
RSG
UN Pension Fund
New York, USA

Mario Anolli
Prof. of Banking and Finance
Univ. Cattolica del S.Cuore
Milan, Italy

Special full day tutorials on Pension Investments, and half day tutorial on Digital Banking, on Friday November 8, 2019. Additional registration required

Speakers for the Tutorial on Digital Banking and Block Chain Technology include:

Le-el Sinai (Reed Smith) on legal aspects

Markus Veith (Grant Thornton) on accounting aspects

Mark Flood (University of Maryland) on regulatory aspects

Priscilla Lotman (Frontshore, Curacao) on incorporating block chain technology

For more information please email fidnes2019@uoc.cw or visit www.fidnes2019.org